

BEHIND THE SCENES

THE

EXPLORE TRUMBULL COUNTY

Day One

ROBINS THEATRE: 10:30 - 11:30

The Robins Theatre opened to a full house on January 9, 1923 and re-opened recently on the exact date, 97 years later to another full house. At the time, the stage was used for vaudeville productions, screening motion pictures and presenting live theatre performances.

Take a Behind The Scenes tour of this beautifully restored historic theatre; watch a short movie on the big screen; and learn about the restoration efforts of this most beloved theater.

SUNRISE INN: Lunch 11:45 - 1:00

This fan-favorite local restaurant was established in 1929 during prohibition, and became Warren's first pizza shop. Today it's a full service restaurant and bar, known for its delicious, Old World and specialty pizzas, garlic chicken, a wide variety of wings, pastas, and specialty burgers. Enjoy a wonderful lunch and you'll quickly realize why this is such a fun stop along the Italian Food Trail!

GUIDED DRIVING TOUR OF DOWNTOWN WARREN: 1:15 - 1:45

Listen to the story of one of the most important historic towns in the region. Known as the capital of the Connecticut Western Reserve, decisions made by our forefathers here, influenced the development of Northeast Ohio. Highlights include: Kinsman House, Connecticut Western Reserve Land & Title Office, Trumbull County Courthouse, Millionaires Row and the Upton House, home of suffragette pioneer Harriet Taylor Upton.

NORMAN ROCKWELL ART EXHIBIT: 2:15 - 3:30

The Boy Scouts of America Art Collection featuring Norman Rockwell: American Scouting Collection at the Medici Museum of Art. Of note are 65 original Norman Rockwell paintings and over 300 pieces from artists such as J.C. Leyendecker as well as original illustrations by Walt Disney.

DON'T LET THE FUN END...

Stay the Night!

SLEEPOVER FUN!

Bring your PJ's and select your overnight accommodations with plenty of "dinner on your own" choices.

- When staying at the historic Best Western Park Hotel; downtown Warren, has several restaurants to choose from including the Saratoga Restaurant and finishing with a nightcap at the Speakeasy Lounge.
- The Eastwood Mall Complex has several national hotel chains to choose from along with multiple dining options.
- The Grand Resort at the Avalon offers on-site dining options and shuttle service to their other two country club properties (group rates available Sun-Thur nights).

Day Two

RED BASKET FARM:

This small family farm located in rural Kinsman, Ohio, grows and distributes over 80 types of greens, known as "specialty crops," which are grown in-ground AND year-round in a sustainable manner. Learn more from passionate farm owners Amy and Floyd Davis.

LUNCH: GOOD INTENTIONS MARKET & CAFE:

Enjoy lunch at Good Intentions Market & Café which is an extension of Red Basket Farm's work. RBF works with great local ag producers to bring your group together around their table.

FARM GIRLS' ARTFUL CLUTTER & SUCH:

This quiet oasis, tucked in the woods in rural Trumbull County, is filled with perennial gardens planted specifically for the honeybees and butterflies raised on their property. The owners turned their passion for nature and gardening into a new business when they discovered that artful clutter, blooming flowers and pollinators all work well together when you add a touch of whimsy. Seasonal presentations and activities can include Butterfly Gardens, Beekeeping and Honey Extraction, Artful Re-purposing, and a make and take activity.

END OF THE COMMONS GENERAL STORE:

This family-owned general store is THE essential Amish Country stop. Visitors step back in time when they walk into the Oldest General Store in Ohio. Pick up "penny candy", Amish wares, unique gifts and most notably handmade Amish Fry Pies! The store has been in continuous operation since 1840.
